Cognac Tasting Flight

3 FOR $15

1) PIERRE FERRAND AMBER: Pierre Ferrand uses Première Cru Grande Champagne grapes and the unfiltered wine is distilled over lees in small 25 hectoliter copper pot stills. Aged in small Limousin oak casks and then blended. The fruit is upfront with the oak lending structure. Aged 10 years on average. This is a great entry-level cognac, with subtle aromas of vanilla, rose, violet, orange zest, raisin, and apricot. These notes are reflected on the full-bodied palate.

2) KELT 'TOUR DU MONDE' VSOP: Distilling Kelt since 1842 using Grande Champagne grapes and traditional methods. Notes of vanilla, dried rose and lavender, apricot, fig and hazelnut. This cognac makes a three months voyage, on a ship, around the world in oak barrel before being bottled. This is done according to tradition because it is believed to be the source of the great flavor.

3) DELAMAIN 'PALE & DRY' XO: Sourced from the Grande Champagne region. Light in color, intense nose of flowers and vanilla with a round and fruity taste. The finish also has woody herbs from the tannins. It is aged 20-25 years in old oak barrels before being blended and married for two years. Unlike most houses, Delamain doesn't add any caramel or sugar for color and sweetness, lending to its name.
